

MURT, Thomas P.

MURT, Thomas P., a Representative from Montgomery and Philadelphia Counties; born in Abington, Montgomery County, Pa., 1960; graduated, Archbishop Wood High School, 1978; B.S., economics, The Pennsylvania State University, 1982; M.A., education, La Salle University, 1988; Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Instructional teaching certificate in business education, Gwynedd-Mercy College, 1997; staff sergeant, United States Army Reserves (1990-2008; active duty, 2003-2004; author, "Voice from Iraq," news reports while on active duty in Tikrit); assistant director, Counseling and Advising Center, The Pennsylvania State University, Abington; associate director of admissions and head wrestling coach, La Salle University; faculty member, business department, The Pennsylvania State University, Abington; school director, school board of Upper Moreland Township; elected, commissioner, Upper Moreland Township; elected as a Republican to the Pennsylvania House of Representatives for the 2007 term and is currently serving his 5th consecutive term.