

BLOOM, Stephen L.

BLOOM, Stephen, a Representative from Cumberland County; born in Manhasset, Nassau County, NY, October 10, 1961; graduated, Penncrest High School; B.S., agricultural economics and rural sociology (resource economics option), The Pennsylvania State University, 1983; J.D., The Dickinson School of Law, 1987; attorney; of counsel, Irwin & McKnight, P.C.; adjunct instructor, management and business, Messiah College; founder and first president, Estate Planning Council of Cumberland County; president, Downtown Carlisle Association; president, Carlisle Early Education Center; elected as a Republican to the Pennsylvania House of Representatives for the 2011, 2013 and 2015 terms; currently serving his 3rd term; appointed, Joint Conservation Committee (2013-present).

Bibliography

Bloom, Stephen. The Believer's Guide to Legal Issues. Chattanooga: Living Ink Books, 2008.