

SNYDER, Pam

SNYDER, Pam, a Representative from Fayette, Greene, and Washington Counties; born in Dry Tavern, Greene County, Pa., November 20, 1955; graduated, Jefferson Morgan High School, 1973; honorary B.A., Waynesburg University, 2008; administrative assistant, Greene County Board of Commissioners (1990-1992); assistant project engineer, Whiting-Turner Contracting Company (1992-1994); senior aide, United States Congressman Frank Mascara (1994-2002); elected, commissioner, Greene County (2004-2012); unsuccessful campaign, Pennsylvania House of Representatives (2010); elected as a Democrat to the Pennsylvania House of Representatives in 2012 and is currently serving her 2nd consecutive term.