

WRIGHT, Gayle

WRIGHT, Gayle, a Representative from Erie County; born in Port Huron, St. Clair County, Mi., 1951; B.S., education and geology, University of Akron, 1973; graduate studies, Gannon University; science teacher, secondary education, Millcreek and Erie School Districts; elected, council president, Erie City (1990-2001); elected as a Democrat to the Pennsylvania House of Representatives by Special Election, August 14, 2001; Sworn-In, September 5, 2001 to serve the remaining 2001 term; unsuccessful campaign for reelection to the House for the 2003 term.